

A Day of Celebration and Gratitude: Teacher's Day at Apostolic Carmel

On 5th September, Apostolic Carmel High School and Junior College celebrated their teachers with immense joy and gratitude. The theme for the day was "Retro/Disco Bollywood," and teachers arrived in their best, reflecting the vibrant theme. The celebrations began at 7:30 am with students greeting their teachers in their respective classes, followed by entertaining class performances. From 9:30 am to 11 am, a lively programme was held in the school hall, where the teachers were welcomed by the school band's outstanding performance. Primary, secondary, and junior college students showcased various Bollywood dance numbers and an enactment, adding to the festive spirit. Teachers were presented with gifts as a token of appreciation. At 11:30 am, a special Mass was held for the staff and Catholic students, seeking God's blessings for the teachers. The PTA parents also organized a programme and lunch for the staff, filled with fun games and prizes. The day ended

